

In conjunction with the SE / SW & Midwest People of Color Conference

BREAKING IN:

BREAKING IN:
BREAKING IN:

BREAKING IN:

BREAKING IN:

BREAKING IN:

BREAKING IN:
BREAKING IN:

Sponsored by:

SALT

Society of American Law Teachers

BREAKING IN: HOW TO GET A JOB IN THE LEGAL ACADEMY

NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

THURSDAY— MARCH 31, 2011
2:30—6:30 PM

AGENDA:

- 2:30-2:45 Registration and coffee
- 2:45-2:50 Welcome
- 2:50-3:05 People of Color in the Legal Academy
- 3:05-4:00 Overview of Roles: The Structure of the Legal Academy:
Responsibilities and Skills
- 4:05-5:00 How to Break In: The Role of Legal Organizations—AALS, bar associations, alumni networks, pro bono, and clinics
- 5:05-6:00 Light dinner and group table talk—The Process
- 6:05-6:30 Questions and Answers

REGISTRATION:

PROGRAM FEE: $35.00

(INC. REFRESHMENTS AND DINNER)

Take advantage of the “early bird” registration fee and hotel discount by acting by March 11.

Registration for both the Southeast/Southwest/Midwest People of Color Legal Scholarship Conference and SALT’s “Breaking In” is available at <https://www.acteva.com/go/seswpocc>.

Any questions? Contact Olympia Duhart duharto@nsu.law.nova.edu or Hazel Weiser hweiser@saltlaw.org.

A community of progressive law professors working for justice, diversity & academic excellence